Joint to Single Membership Conversion Form

The Bylaws of BEK Communications Cooperative provide that a husband and wife who meet the requirements for membership in the Cooperative are automatically joint members, unless both spouses indicate in writing their intent to apply for a non-joint, single-status membership solely in one of their names. Additionally, a joint membership may be converted to a single-status membership if both spouses sign an application for single-status membership. The conversion of a joint membership to a single-status membership does not release a member or that member's estate from any debts owed the Cooperative.

This form, completed in full, must be returned to BEK Communications Cooperative, 200 East Broadway, PO Box 230, Steele, ND 58482 or emailed to capitalcredits@bektel.coop.

Date: _____

We, and _____ and _____, a legally married couple, request a single-status membership in the Cooperative rather than a joint membership, effective as of the date of this request. We agree that the single-status membership shall be in the name of _____ (Member). We understand that by establishing single-status membership, only the Member named above will earn capital credits associated with the purchase of subscribed services and only the Member will have voting rights in the Cooperative. Upon the named Member's death, any surviving spouse will not receive the deceased Member's capital credits through a right of survivorship and those credits will pass as part of the deceased Member's estate. We also understand that at any time during our marriage, we may withdraw our selection of a single-status membership and request a joint membership.
